Always Have Something To Say

Project Based Collaboration

Introducing AI-Writer.

Keep up with what's being said about your brand online and get hourly, daily and weekly updates. Highlight content that is favorable to your brand in order to feed your AI engine on how to write it's own posts. If it quotes content, it cites each and every source. Prevent your AI engine from plagiarism but setting an originality setting. Automate AI blogs to be posted via a custom-built content management plug in.
